Subject: Lieutenant Douglas A. Seman Retirement

Lieutenant Douglas A. Seman announced his retirement from the Mansfield Division of Police effective March 21, 2017.

Lieutenant Seman was appointed to the department on March 15, 1991, promoted to Sergeant on February 14, 2005 and to Lieutenant on June 5, 2014.

As a new Patrol Officer for the Mansfield Police Department he was assigned to the Community Services Bureau Patrol Section. Upon his promotion to Lieutenant he assumed the responsibilities of the Patrol Section's Watch Commander. During his career he was a Field Training Officer, Recruitment Officer, Firearms Instructor, Training Sergeant, and at the time of his retirement was the Department's Lead Armorer.

Lieutenant Seman is known for his hard work, dedication, initiative and positive attitude toward his work and co-workers. He consistently demonstrates a high degree of skill, integrity and perseverance in his job. Throughout his career he received numerous Special Commendation Awards and letters of recognition.

Doug's retirement represents a loss to the Mansfield Division of Police and culminates a career that has exemplified the best qualities of a law enforcement professional. He has our congratulations upon his retirement and our heartfelt thanks for his many years of loyal service. We wish him the greatest success and happiness in the future.

Everyone is invited to a farewell reception for Doug on Tuesday, March 21 at 1330 hours in the City Council Chambers.

HAPPY RETIREMENT AND GOOD LUCK DOUG!
