Keith Porch, Chief of Police

For Immediate Release

Date: May 28th, 2019

No. # 39

Subject: Missing / Runaway Juvenile

The Mansfield Division of Police is asking for the community's assistance in locating King Lipscomb. King was last seen on May 9th, 2019 in the Harker Street area in our city. However, he previously lived in Akron, Ohio and may have traveled to that area as he still has many friends in the Lakeshore Boulevard of that city.

King is a 13 year old white male, 5'8" tall and 180 pounds with brown hair and blue eyes. His hair may be shaven on the sides and pulled into a bun. He was last seen wearing khaki pants, an orange polo shirt and red Reebok shoes.

Anyone with information concerning the current whereabouts of King Lipscomb is urged to call the Mansfield Division of Police Dispatch at (419) 522-1234 or Detective Rich Miller, Major Crimes Unit at (419) 755-9758.
