Subject: UPDATED PICTURE - Missing Person

As part of our ongoing search, the Mansfield Division of Police is once again asking for the community's assistance in locating Holly P. Crider. Based on information we have received, Holly was last seen in the 500 Block of Allison Avenue in Mansfield, Ohio on or about March 27th, 2017.

Investigators have reached out to friends, family, and neighbors in an effort to locate Holly, to no avail. The Mansfield Division of Police has, also, contacted other law enforcement agencies in an attempt to corroborate information received during the investigation about her possible whereabouts, without locating her.

Holly is 38 years old, 5'8" tall and 170 pounds and is on oxygen as well as taking medication daily for ongoing health issues. Attached is an UPDATED photo of Holly which was taken approximately nine (9) days prior to her being reported missing by family members on March 30th, 2017.

Anyone with information concerning this case or the current whereabouts of Holly P. Crider is urged to call the Mansfield Division of Police Dispatch at (419) 522-1234 or the Major Crimes Unit, Det. Rich Miller at (419) 755-9758.
