

REGULAR COUNCIL MEETING
Oct 3, 2023

The first monthly meeting of Mansfield City Council met on Tuesday, October 3, 2023 at 7:23 pm in the Council Chambers of the City Building.

The Pledge of Allegiance was recited by the audience.

David Falquette led the audience in prayer.

ROLL CALL: The following answered were present at roll call: Burns, Meier, Akuchie, Davenport, Diaz (excused absence), Moton, Zader, Scott, and Falquette.

There being no objections, the reading of the Journal and Correspondence was dispensed with.

PUBLIC COMMENTS:

ACTING PRESIDENT SCOTT: Do we have anyone signed up? Although I did see Bridget come in and I know President Falquette had said you might be coming to speak. So, if you want to come on up now Bridget. Ms. Coles I'm sorry.

BRIGITTE COLES: Thank you so much. This opportunity, good to see everyone. The reason that I'm here tonight is to talk about our renewal levy that's gonna be appearing on the fall ballot. We are asking for the community support to renew Richland County Children Services (RCCS) ten year One Million Property Tax Levy, that's going to be appearing on the November 7th ballot. The levy will generate about 2.3 million dollars annually for our agency. This levy was first approved in 1984 and it's due to expire the end of 2024. We have a fulltime staff right now of about one hundred (100) employees who are on the front lines in the community protecting children in Richland county and helping families who are in need. Some of our services include our Kinship Navigator program, which provides services and resources. The Kinship caregivers, who may be grandparents, older siblings, cousins, close family friends or mentors. We have right now two hundred (200) of those children in the kinship program. We also have 146 youths who are in foster care and we only have 60 parents right now providing assistance with that. So, we do have an urgent need for foster parents. One of our biggest concerns and the reason that we are asking for the support of this renewal is the rising cost of caring for the children that are in our care. Our recent figures are showing right now that we, um, were at one time responsible for 134 children. This was around in April. That cost to care for those children cost eight thousand, seven hundred dollars ($8,700). Right now, we have 141 children in our care and this is only September. So that shows you how that number is continuing to rise. We've been averaging since April between 140 to 147 children. With that increase in the amount of children coming in our care, our cost has increased to ten-thousand, five hundred dollars ($10,500) per day to care for these children. The renewal is not a new tax. It will cost the owner of a $100,000 home only eight and a half cents per day. So that averages out to $.60 per week and about $2.40 a month, which is less that what you would pay for a cup of coffee just to help us maintain the services that we offer. We never give up on our families. We know that families and their children are important to our community. And we will never stop working at service to them. We thank the City of Mansfield for constantly supporting us. We know many of you supported a lot of the initiatives that we have from collecting Valentine's Day cards from our foster children, to coming out to read to some of our youth in our program and also working with us as we collaborate with the Mansfield City Schools for Peace on My Block. Again, thank you so much for allowing me the opportunity to talk about this and for your continued support and we are hoping that the community will continue to support our efforts.

ACTING PRESIDENT SCOTT: Any other questions for...Director Spon?

BRIGITTE COLES: Yes sir.

LAW DIRECTOR SPON: (You can't understand what he was saying on the audio, but he asked what foster parents were paid for fostering children in the area)

BRIGITTE COLES: Ok. Our foster parents are paid. As far as how much the families are receiving, that I don't have an exact number for you and I apologize for that. I know that it varies, but it depends on the severity of the cases that we have coming in for the children. As far as with this levy, that will provide us twenty percent (20%) of what we need for our agency. The remainder of our funding comes from the state and federal dollars...your welcome.

ACTING PRESIDENT SCOTT: Any other questions? Comment? Mrs. Zader.

STEPHANIE ZADER: Just a thank you. As you know my background and you know my passion for this. I say it every time you come, but thank you for what you do. I commend you for all of the hard work and everyone at Children Services for all that they do because it's a big job and it really does take a village.

BRIGITTE COLES: Thank you. We sincerely appreciate every one's support and prayers because they are needed. Our caseworkers, they deal with a lot on a daily basis. And being able to come in and provide care for children in the county, as well as taking care of their own families, they are truly heroes out there. So, we're very thankful for everything that they do.

ACTING PRESIDENT SCOTT: Thank you Bridget...ope...

BRIGITTE COLES: Yes, yes Rev. El?

ELEAZER AKUCHIA: Brigitte, I just want to make a comment. Talking with Sherry Barket (?) last week and the need for foster parents, is really - I was surprised, I didn't know that much about it and it's really something that we're looking at the church to see how the church will partner with you and make some impact. So, we are working on that, and hopefully things will come up better. So, thank you for what you guys are doing and we hope that pretty soon there might be some improvement.

BRIGITTE COLES: Thank you, we hope so too. Because, this is also a state-wide issue. We have sixteen thousand, five hundred children (16,500) in the state of Ohio that are in foster care waiting for adoption. So, the numbers are increasing and it's not just our county. It's everywhere. I know everyone is having a variety of campaigns from yard signs, to mailers, to Billboards, but we really do need people that can open up their hearts and homes for these children because they need a loving home and they deserve it. They deserve it so much, and we want them to experience a safe and loving environment. Thank you.

ACTING PRESIDENT SCOTT: Thank you. I know we don't have any formal legislation, but I was wondering if it would be appropriate or what the feeling of council would be to take an act of Mansfield City Council formally endorsing the levy?

ALOMAR DAVENPORT: I think we would need to have a resolution drawn up to do that.

ACTING PRESIDENT SCOTT: Ok.

STEPHANIE ZADER: Could we prep that for next council maybe?

ACTING PRESIDENT SCOTT: That would be my next question. And that was kind of where I was going before we maybe would have it prepped, would we have the support?

STEPHANIE ZADER: I would be in support of that.

ACTING PRESIDENT SCOTT: Ok. Thank you.

END OF DISCUSSION

ACTING PRESIDENT SCOTT: Do we have any committee reports? Alright Mayor, would you like to address Council?

ACTING MAYOR FALQUETTE: No Mr. President, I have nothing.

ACTING PRESIDENT SCOTT: Director Remy?
