PUBLIC COMMENTS:

ALOMAR DAVENPORT: Good Evening, old friends and new. My name is Alomar Davenport, 575 Stocking Avenue, Mansfield, Ohio. Stand here before you today as the President-Elect of the NAACP. Next Tuesday, January 14th, we will be having a meeting. A community meeting, it is not our regular monthly meeting. But a community meeting, where we will be speaking to our vision for the next couple of years for the organization, or plans for the organization for the next couple of years. The emphasis is going to be collaboration. We are looking to collaborate with different organizations, city council, city government. Over the last two years, I think we created a fruitful relationship with Mayor Perry. And, I am here to invite the rest of council and I know Mayor Perry will not be here. But we do have Councilwoman Daley, Councilman Diaz and Director Harper who I know have this meeting on their calendar. I wanted extend this invitation to the rest of council, to come out and hear what we have to say, hear what we're looking to do. Like I said, our emphasis is collaboration. And we are looking to work with other members of the community to help to create a better community. Hope to see some of you next Tuesday, all of you if you can. And, that is my peace. This will be at 486 Bowman Street, January 14th at 6:00pm. We will be at the NECIC building on Springmill Street. Thank you.

CLOSING COMMENTS:

PRESIDENT PHIL SCOTT: Is there anything else to come before council this evening? Miss Mount.

DEBORAH MOUNT: Just a quick comment and compliment to pass along to the service complex. I have heard from numerous residents. They are very grateful for the improvement for the ice and snow this year. It's been significantly better than it used to be. If you could get out of your neighborhood, you could get to where you are going. Now it is, if you couldn't get out of your neighborhood, you might not be able to get where you were going. So, it's quite different, that's appreciated. Thank you.
